NORTHWESTERN KEEPS FOOTBALL AFTER BIG FIGHT

Faculty Split Over Dollar Rule.

BY WALLACE ABBEY.

Northwestern University faculty last night narrowly averted the precipitation of a hotbed of football. After a heated debate, the Northwestern chapter of the American Association of University Professors, consisting of 100 members, voted non-acceptance of a series of resolutions prepared by a special committee, in which the present methods and conditions governing intercollegiate football were severely condemned. The meeting was held at the North Shore hotel.

The rejected resolutions contained recommendations for the abolition of football, and demands for shortening the football season, radical reduction in admission prices, and absolute control of teams. With the addition of one amendment, the proposed resolutions were tabled.

Opponents of the choker move on football, following the meeting, indicated that while the action last night was merely tabled, they would combat more efforts to revive the issue in the drastic form of its presentation.

Deplores Present Game. The document which nearly sent the sport to the plank deplores present football games as huge financial drains on the universities, and as an encroachment on educational time.

It attacks the present system on the ground that it has developed into a struggle between highly paid coaches, instead of amateur teams, and that nothing short of exploitation is being practiced on colleges, alumni, and the public, in the name of football.

"Intercollegiate athletic competition, in its proper place, is something whose benefits we would not readily forego," reads the document, but continues, "Another system has been substituted for it, which masquerades under the same name, but whose purposes and methods are those of professional athletes and entertainers, whether the players are paid or not."

"As an association we cannot afford to accept such a situation, in full of actual and potential menace to the ideals we hold."

After two hours of debate the assembled professors finally arrived at the voting stage. The margin which kept the resolutions from going forward to the American Association of University Professors, was reported to have been slim.

Dr. R. L. Schaub, head of the department of philosophy, is president of the Northwestern faculty, and Prof. Clyde Green of the history department, is the secretary.

After extended explanation of their positions against the gridiron game of today, five recommendations were presented for consideration. Following are the items in the indictment of football which failed to meet with approval:

"The game is a waste of time. The hours of study should be devoted to studies of the sciences."

"A heavy amount of financial aid is a waste of money. It should be used to build up the physical and mental health of the student."

PLANE DESERTED IN ARIZONA; HUNT CLARA PHILLIPS

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 7.—The landing of an airplane at the state fair grounds here late this evening and the immediate disappearance of its passengers, a man and a woman, were being investigated by the sheriff's office to-night.

The superintendent of the fair grounds said that the man and woman did not give him their names nor tell him where they were going, but said they had come from Tucson.

Sheriff's deputies said that reports that Clara Phillips, escaped convict, had been seen at the fair grounds, caused them to investigate the landing of the plane.

The woman who arrived here was about 5 feet 5 inches tall and weighed about 125 pounds. She wore a heavy dark coat. Mrs. Phillips' measurements are almost exactly as those given by the fair grounds superintendent.

Deputy sheriffs reported the airplane to be a standard J-1 type with the numbers 2745-20 N.A.V.2 on the lower surface of the upper wing.

Phonograph hunting along the border and in California failed today to find any trace of Mrs. Phillips.

GIRL JOINS RUM GANG; SAVES KIN

Proves Brother Innocent of Farmer's Murder.

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 7.—[United News.]—Outdoing the heroine of the most thrilling movie serial, Miss Helen Saureman joined a band of rum-runners, participated in their escapades, and finally gained the information which has secured her brother's release from a life sentence imposed on a false charge of murder.

In addition to freeing her brother, the girl has barred to the authorities the existence of an alleged $100,000 booze ring, which has for many months completely baffled both federal and state officials. Besides this, she has charged with the murder, four other alleged rum-runners have been arrested as a result of her story, and five more men are being sought.

Brother Serving Life Term. Leo Saureman, the brother, was arrested last January following the murder of Alex Dombrowski, farmer, at Gibraltar, Mich. A jury decided that Leo was guilty and a judge sentenced him to life imprisonment, but the prisoner claimed he was innocent and Helen believed him. After he was sent to prison she set out to prove that the jury was wrong.

Donning a set of her brother's old clothes and clipping her hair, Helen penetrated the bootlegging district comprising Gibraltar, Ecorse, and other towns down the river, according to the amazing story of girlish pluck revealed by Sheriff Coffin Thursday.

Soon she had identified herself with a desperate gang of lawbreakers, undaunted by the thought that a false step might bring an early end to her investigation and to her life.

Took Chances on Her Life. For weeks the girl participated in some of the most daring escapades of the rum-runners. Time and again she helped smuggle booze over the Canadian line and took the chance of being arrested as well as the chance of possible death.

But all these chances were not taken in vain. Eventually she returned to Detroit and turned over to Sheriff Coffin the "tips" she had gleaned through daily conversation and association with criminals.

Thursday Homer Noel and Marvin Brown, arrested on the strength of Helen's information, confessed to Coffin that they were members of the gang which killed Dombrowski and admitted that Saureman was not a member of the gang.

The fruits of Helen's brave work, however, began to materialize when Judge Moynihan, who sentenced Leo, announced that immediate steps would be taken for Saureman's release.

U. S. CHRISTMAS SAVINGS REACH $190,000,000 TOTAL

Distribution of the huge sum of $190,000,000 to more than 5,000,000 Christmas savings club depositors was begun yesterday and will be continued until Dec. 10, by 5,000 banking institutions in the United States.

Of this sum, Chicago banks are distributing alone more than $5,000,000 and $15,485,760 is being paid over to depositors by banks in Illinois.

This millions of Americans and more than 100,000 Chicagoans, who joined the Christmas Club with the idea of "saving to spend" are assured ample spending money for the Yuletide holidays.

It is stated by eastern bank officials who compiled the figures that this year's Christmas club deposits and distribution greatly exceeds their most extravagant hopes and that next year's will undoubtedly be much greater still.

The theory that thrift could be taught by inducing the masses to save for spending purposes was advanced by Herbert F. Rawls in 1913, when he founded the Christmas Club, Inc.

SMALL BOARD UPSETS COUNT; MARKS NAMED

Called High Handed and Illegal.

Gov. Len Small, State Auditor Andrew Russell, and State Treasurer Edward R. Miller took a seat in the state senate away from Norman Macpherson, Democrat, yesterday, and gave it to Adolph Marks, a staunch supporter of the Lundin-Thompson-Small machine.

By the returns canvassed by the Chicago election board and certified by County Clerk Switzer Macpherson was elected senator from the First district by forty-three votes. Those returns were reviewed yesterday by the state canvassing board at Springfield, the returns from one precinct were rejected on grounds of fraud, other figures were substituted, and Marks was declared elected.

Talk of Impeachment. News of this action reaching Chicago last night raised a storm of fury among the Democrats and brought from Republicans bitter condemnation of the decision as an undeniable oversteering of the law. It revived talk of definite action to bring about impeachment of Gov. Small.

"During the canvass of the vote in Chicago," said Martin J. O'Brien, chairman of the Democratic managing committee, "we were warned emphatically and unmistakably that the city hall intended to steal this seat. A sign to that effect was published in the Tribune at last night, with an announcement we would watch every move made."

"The result was they did not succeed in counting Macpherson out during the review of the precinct figures. So they attempted to have the canvassing board provided over by Judge Riggheimer throw out a precinct on charges that had been committed."

In Disregard of Law. "But even that board, controlled by the city hall, refused to violate the law to the extreme demanded. Judge Riggheimer held that if fraud were committed the place for evidence of that character was in a contest and a recount in the senate. That is the law."

"And that is the law governing the state canvassing board. They have no more right than the Chicago board to go behind the figures certified to them as correct. If Marks had proof of fraud the place to present it was to the senate."

"So certain were we of the law that we did not even send a lawyer to appear before the state board. Attorney Colin C. H. Fyfe sent down a written citation of cases that leaves no doubt on this point. Nobody dreamed that a political organization would dare go to this extreme in utter disregard of the law."

Calls It Malfeasance. Attorney Fyfe could not be found last night, but Attorney Henry A. Berger, associated with him in matters before the election board, denounced the action of changing precinct returns as "malfeasance in office."

"There is absolutely no doubt that the state officials who took this action are guilty of malfeasance," he said. "They utterly disregarded the law. They overrode it. They defied it."

"Let those citizens who only a day or two ago demanded at the Pershing meeting that Gov. Small be impeached add this as another count to their indictment."

Attorney General Brundage and former Attorney General Lucey said the state board had utterly no right to throw out or alter any precinct figures for "malfeasance in office."

"They wanted that seat and they took it," said Attorney General Brundage. "That's all there is to it. The state canvassing board has no authority except to review the figures submitted to them by the clerks of the several counties of the state. It is not a court. It cannot count ballots. And it cannot go into the question whether the votes were counted correctly in the several counties."

The purpose for which the state canvassing board was created is clear and its powers are confined to that purpose. Where an officer is to be elected from a territory including more than one county who is to put together the returns from the two or more counties and proclaim the result? No clerk of any one county could do it. Therefore the state canvassing board was created for this purpose and this purpose alone."

"There isn't any question about the matter," said former Attorney General Lucey. "The state canvassing board had absolutely no right to take this action. All it can do is to take the figures reported from the different counties on their faces. They have no right to use their judgment or discretion in the matter."

Morris & Co. Balk Armour Merger Plan

J. Ogden Armour's projected $330,000,000 packing merger, in support of which he has been seeking governmental approval of the consolidation of Armour & Co., Morris & Co., and it has been rumored, also Wilson & Co. and Cudahy, banded into a smag last night which may stop the whole program.

The smag was a statement signed by Nelson and Edward Morris in which they intimate that a packers' war is one of the possibilities, that all the talking thus far has been by Mr. Armour, and that they do not propose to sit idly by and find themselves pushed out of the packing business.

Declare Themselves Unyielding. The Messrs. Morris indicate that they so far have not had the confidence of Mr. Armour in any of his many visits to Washington. His conferences with President Harding, Attorney General Daugherty, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and some congressmen, in connection with the possibility of obtaining government consent for the deal.

Here is what the Morris brothers, in their joint statement say: "We note by Thursday's morning newspapers that Mr. Armour has submitted President Harding that we are anxious to be out of the packing business."

"This is news to us. No Price Talked, They Say. "While we realized that Mr. Armour is very anxious to acquire our business and our organization, up to the present time we have not put a price on same, and he has not made us an offer."

"Even if Mr. Armour should purchase our business it would not mean that we would long remain out of the packing business."

This statement was signed by Nelson Morris as chairman of the board of directors, and Edward Morris, as president of Morris & Co.

It has been rumored that the reasons advanced by Mr. Armour before the President and his cabinet members, and others why Armour & Co. should be permitted to acquire Morris & Co. were that such a merger would materially reduce the overhead—the administrative, operating, and distributing costs—of the packing industry and that it would result inevitably in a saving to the public.

New Competition Threatened. This opinion, it is said, the Morris brothers do not share with Mr. Armour; and even were Mr. Armour's opinion in this respect correct, it is indicated that the saving would not in the end be accomplished, inasmuch as it appears from their statement to be the intention of the Morris brothers to go at once back into competition with Armour & Co. should Mr. Armour acquire their present tangible assets.

It was reported in the meantime in Washington yesterday morning that Attorney General Daugherty would submit during the day an opinion on the legality, or the conformity to the anti-trust laws, of the proposed Armour-Morris consolidation to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

No Statement from Wallace. Res from Mr. Wallace there was no statement forthcoming last night. In the meanwhile, Mr. Armour in Chicago continued silent. He refused to make any statement whatever; but it was indicated that further Washington negotiations are in the wind, for it was stated that he will leave for the east early today.

Mr. Armour has made a number of visits to the capital in connection with the proposed merger. On several of these he called on President Harding; on others he has conferred with the attorney general and with the secretary of agriculture and with congressmen.

FRANCE READS U. S. WARNING IN HARVEY'S TALK

Sees Opposition to Ruhr Seizure.

BY RAYMOND FENDRICK. (Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) (Copyright, 1922, By The Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, Dec. 7.—America has warned France not to undertake its projected adventure into the Ruhr and Rhineland to exploit German industries, forests and mines as a means of collecting reparations.

This is the French foreign office's interpretation of Ambassador Harvey's recent speech. Its import—that though America might not be able to influence the allied premier's decision, it could take exception to them—only reached Paris today, causing a great sensation in government quarters.

The speech was overheard until Ambassadors Fletcher and Houghton arrived in London and the London Daily Telegraph stated that Ambassador Harvey's plan to make an incursion into the Ruhr was changed by last minute instructions.

Eye U. S. Troops on Rhine. Since Premier Poincaré's demand that France seize and exploit German properties in return for a moratorium is now the only outstanding question to be discussed by the premier in London Saturday, the French have not any doubt as to what Ambassador Harvey returned.

The French government, in spite of many previous announcements to the contrary is taken by the French government as a similar indication of Washington's views.

Despite the "American warning," the French program in London will be continued in a single question, to be asked of Prime Minister Bonar Law: "Do you agree that the allies must demand guarantees from Germany in return for a moratorium?"

Express British to Agree. An affirmative reply will provide a basis for discussion. Otherwise Premier Poincaré will return to Paris without further argument and call a meeting of the cabinet for a final decision and then order the seizure of the Ruhr.

The French believe that England will make a loud protest, but will not interfere with their movement.

BONUS BOARD TO SUE ITSELF AND TEST VALIDITY

Decision Made at First Meeting of Body.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 7.—[Special.]—The first official meeting of the Illinois bonus board was held tonight in Gov. Small's office, with the governor, State Treasurer Miller, and Adj. Gen. Black, the members in attendance. The commission which is to distribute the $55,000,000 bond issue among Illinois war veterans, began by receiving the formal report of the state canvassing board, officially establishing the enactment of the bonus measure. Gov. Small was elected chairman, Adj. Gen. Black, secretary, and Palmer Edmunds, assistant past commander of Blackhawk (Chicago) post of the American Legion, chief clerk and executive officer of the board, which then took up some of the preparatory details of its task.

Board to Sue Itself.

One of these is a decision that there shall be a friendly injunction suit instituted immediately to test the legality of the bonus law, particularly to establish the validity of the state bond issue of $55,000,000. The suit will be defended by the American Legion as represented by the state judge advocate, Harry A. Newby. The time and place of filing the suit will be determined early next week in Chicago, after a conference between State Commander Charles W. Schick and Past Commander William R. McCauley. On motion of Treasurer Miller it was decided that all of the 575 or 580 appointees who will handle the technical business of the board, must be selected from men and women who are themselves eligible to the bonus under the law.

Need Legislative Budget Act.

A tentative estimate of $75,000 for appropriations to be requested from the incoming general assembly for carrying on the work was decided on. Appropriations made by the last legislature carry the board as a going concern until next July, with an aggregate amount of $69,500, which must cover immediate printing and other emergency expenditures. Treasurer Miller, who is the congressman elect from the East St. Louis district, told the board that Congressman William A. Hodenberg from that district expects to introduce a bill in congress during the present short session, which if enacted, would permit

CON MAN DE LUXE IS LIKELY TO GET YULETIDE PARDON

The Illinois state pardon board yesterday recommended release from FREDERICK W. BUCKMINSTER, captured in Palm Beach, Fla., where he wound up after a flight during his conviction in October, 1915, of conspiracy to defraud. In disappearing he forfeited $125,000 bonds put up by friends.

He was convicted of swindling Martin Hupé, a Homewood, Ill., farmer, of $2,500 in a fake horse race game. While out on bail he, with Will and James W. Head, were identified by A. A. Charles, a wealthy Kokomo, Ind., manufacturer, as the trio who sold him a fake steel mill for $110,000.

the mailing of the Illinois bonus applications to Springfield under a franking privilege, which would save postage to the applicants of perhaps 4 cents.

Following these actions the board recessed until next Thursday, Dec. 14, at 2 p. m., at which time will be submitted for approval the form of the application that must be submitted by each applicant for bonus, and at which definite rules covering the application of the bonus law will be determined.

BONUS QUERIES AND ANSWERS

Q.—I enlisted in the navy in July, 1917, and was discharged on Aug. 1, 1918, not receiving honorable discharge. I then enlisted in the United States army, serving through my enlistment and was given honorable discharge. Will I be entitled to any bonus?

A.—If your service in the navy was not honorable you would not be eligible for the bonus for the time spent in the army if you still all other requirements.

Q.—Does the bonus law now being drafted provide payment for a navy officer who is still in the navy, served in the war and was a resident of Illinois at the time he was commissioned?

X. Y. Z.

A.—If he was a resident of this state at the time of his original enlistment he would be able to collect the bonus.

GREEKS APPROVE EXECUTIONS OF FORMER LEADERS

BY OTIS SWIFT.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
ATHENS, Dec. 7.—[Delayed.]—By an overwhelming majority the people of Greece have endorsed the revolutionary government's execution of five former cabinet ministers and the generalissimo of the Asia Minor army. From all parts of the country and from Greeks reading abroad telegrams and cables pour in to Premier Gonatas announcing approval of the executions.

Contrary to reports in the European press that riots raged in Greece, as a result of the sentences, absolute quiet has reigned throughout the country, no demonstrations of any sort occurring. A week ago the world was shocked to read about the executions. What the world pondered cold blooded murder was met with popular approval here, it was explained today by an official, who told The Tribune: "Henceforth officials will know they cannot play loosely and dishonestly with the lives, happiness, and welfare of the Greek people and then escape all punishment and allow the burden of the catastrophes and misery they have caused to lie upon other shoulders."

"The Not Wish Death."

"We elected these men to lead Greece. Instead, they played their own political games. Knowing they could not succeed, they allowed Greece to be made a pawn in international politics in the disastrous Asia Minor adventure, which caused the nation's downfall. They toyed with the weak king in his grandiose ambitions."

"They trusted inefficient, irresponsible men—political favorites—with the command of the armies. They robbed the treasury. Their policies threw away the lives of Greek soldiers in a hopeless war. It is to their betrayal of their country that 1,000,000 refugees today owe their wretched, homeless misery."

"When men entrusted with a high office betray their trust they must pay. We did not wish their deaths, but we wanted it so they never would have another opportunity to despoil Greece. The British minister here, whose government backed Constantine, warned us against executing our prisoners."

"We regret that we would gladly banish them for life if Great Britain would guarantee to prevent these men from ever returning to Greece. Great Britain refused to do so. So long as these men, powerful Constantine supporters, could seek refuge in other lands to plot against us there, Greece's safety could not be assured. Their crime against the dead of the Greek army, against 1,000,000 homeless refugees, demanded the sternest punishment. Their potentiality for plotting further unhappiness for our country made that punishment death."

Threatened to Lynch Leaders.

It must be remembered that the sentences were decreed by a revolutionary court martial, composed of soldiers, who, used to death as an everyday occurrence, did not regard it as excessive punishment for the politicians whom they believed had caused the Greek debacle in Asia Minor. Officers of the Asia Minor army, who now are in Saloniki, even threatened to march on Athens and lynch the six leaders if the court martial did not decree the death penalty.

The revolutionary government has won the approval of the majority, but it has stirred up a most bitter feeling among the royalists. The latter, however, lack a leader, so their importance is almost nil.

The dollar is skyrocketing on the Athens bourse and the Greek government faces a serious problem in heavy short speculation, which continues to drive down the drachma. The fall is embarrassing the government in view of Greece's demand for dollar exchanges for the purchase of American wheat valued at more than $5,000,000.

FLIGHT OF GREEKS.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
LONDON, Dec. 7.—The British government, in a official statement issued tonight, announced the serious case of the problem of the refugees in Greece. Over 550,000 refugees have reached Greece from Ionia alone and, as these are all technically Turkish subjects, Greece is not legally responsible for them.

There are still about 600,000 Ottoman Greeks in Asia Minor and 300,000 Greeks in Constantinople and eastern Thrace.

IRISH REBELS BAPTIZE NEW STATE IN BLOOD

Shoot Two Members of Dail; Hurl Bombs.

BY THOMAS RYAN.

[Special Telegram Foreign News Service.]
DUBLIN, Dec. 7.—Eamon de Valera's republicans are baptizing the Irish Free State with blood, and it is increasingly evident that they will go to any length to prevent the new government from functioning.

Republicans shot and killed Sean Hales and severely wounded Deputy Public Officer, members of the new parliament, today.

A bomb was hurled at a motor truck carrying Free State troops tonight. None of the soldiers was harmed, but two civilians were wounded.

Four men and several women were injured by a bomb thrown in Cork. Late this evening police obtained descriptions of the two men who, after shooting the two members of the Dail, fled up a side street and escaped. The man who gave the descriptions resembled a man named, fearing the possibility of reprisals. No arrests have yet been made.

Amateur Armored Car.
Battered firing continues this evening. An armored car was ambushed and three national soldiers wounded. Deputy Hales had been active in operations against the republicans in the north, holding the rank of brigadier.

At the time of the death of Michael Collins, Mr. Hales, who was Collins' aide and also active in the war against the English, was warned that he would be the next to die. His brother, Thomas Hales, is an ardent rebel and was said to have led the ambush that killed Mr. Collins.

Mr. O'Malley was also an old Sinn Féin. He was elected deputy speaker of the new parliament yesterday.

Angry Announces Murder.
The first public announcement of the death of Hales and the wounding of O'Malley was made by President Michael T. Cosgrave in the Dail. The president rose silently to express sympathy with the bereaved families. Then Gen. Mulcahy boomed, "Hales and O'Malley were not given time to see their families or a priest," referring to criticisms of recent legislation.

Under Stays British.
[Special Telegram Foreign News Service.]
LONDON, Dec. 7.—Under Stays today voted in the Free State today when the House of Commons adopted a motion to the king asking him to exercise his power of pardon from the Dail act. Sir James Craig left London with this decision for presentation to the king tomorrow.

Mr. Craig very emphatically stated that the Dail had not changed in mind and that he had no intention of returning to his relations with the Dail government and that the only way to secure unity in Ireland was for the Dail to settle its own affairs and to leave the king to carry on as at present.

TO BOND MEN of Ambition

SUCH men are at this time measuring their opportunities for the year 1923 with their ambitions, to see if they match up. Some of these men are finding limitations of one kind or another which are holding them back—a limited list of issues; restricted list of prospects and clients; compensation which is not liberally or immediately chance for advancement. If you are up against these handicaps—if your ability is bigger than your present opportunities—we would like to meet you.

CLOSING OF BANK NEARLY CAUSES RIOT

Crowd in front of the International State bank at 706 West Roosevelt road, which was closed temporarily yesterday while H. S. Savage, state bank examiner for the Chicago district, completed an examination of its books.

POLICE PREVENT RIOT BY ALIENS AS BANK CLOSES

Hope to Reopen, and Pay Off Depositors.

Police intervention prevented a gathering demonstration by Jewish and Russian depositors in the International State bank, 706 West Roosevelt road, yesterday when the bank was closed on orders of H. S. Savage, state bank examiner for Cook county.

Examination of the books by Deputy Examiner Fairbairn was begun yesterday morning. Late in the afternoon Mr. Savage issued the following statement:

"On account of recent withdrawals the bank has had difficulty the last few days in meeting the balance against it through the clearing house. Due to this condition, the department deemed it advisable in the interest of the depositors to close the bank this morning pending an investigation of its assets and liabilities. It is hoped arrangements can be made to reopen the bank or at least provide sufficient cash to pay the depositors in full within a short time."

Deposits of $105,000.

The bank is capitalized for $100,000, with a surplus of $5,000. According to Mr. Savage, its deposits total about $105,000, but no exact report on its condition can be given, said Mr. Savage, until the audit is complete.

The officers are: Earl H. Bradaewsky, president; Joseph Meyer and S. J. Jermier, vice presidents; B. Gopstein, cashier, and M. A. Russow, assistant cashier.

The directors are: Bradaewsky, Meyer, E. T. Noonan, Dr. J. A. Kohn, Charles L. Gansler, and H. I. Star.

Most of Them Aliens.

The majority of the depositors are of foreign birth or extraction. Many told tales of the hardship which the closing of the bank would bring them. They had deposited money in the bank, they said, which they had planned to send to relatives in Europe to pay steamer and railroad fares to the United States.

The bank formerly did a foreign exchange business dealing in steamer tickets and arranging to bring relatives to Chicago from the "old country." It was reported to have failed last March, when crowds besieged it as they did yesterday. The report at that time was declared "false."

Calf Born with 3 Heads, 6 Legs, Lives but Few Hours

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Dec. 7.—A freak calf with three separate heads and six legs, one of which had three distinct hoofs, was born on the farm of Bert Bapst, a farmer living south of here. One of the heads was between the forelegs and another on the right side of the shoulder. The calf lived but a few hours.

JUDGES "INSULT" ALDERMEN; LOSE PLEA FOR ROOMS

Threats to mandamus the city council to provide court rooms for the six new municipal court judges together with the statement by Judge Robert E. Geitzel before the council finance committee yesterday, "that if politicians would quit trying to fix speeding cases there would be money for court rooms," featured the request of the judges that $35,000 be appropriated for court room space in the remodeled Bush temple, Clark street and Chicago avenue.

After the judges had left the committee session the aldermen decided that they had been "insulted." Ald. Moran declaring that "we were told to our faces that we're a bunch of fixers," and the committee voted to turn down the judges' request on the theory that the rent asked for the Bush temple space, $3.50 a square foot, is "exorbitant."

Mrs. GROVE BARCLAY BOUGHT.
Detroit police yesterday issued the following warrant to search for Mrs. Grove Barclay, 501 East 44th street.

DENEEN GROUP'S MAYORALTY PLAN IS UP IN THE AIR

BY PARKE BROWN.

Public announcement whether the Deneen group of Republicans is to back a mayoralty candidate selected from its own members is expected soon after the special election on the proposed new constitution next Tuesday.

For several months Joseph F. Haas, county recorder, and Edward R. Littinger, member of the board of review, have been selected among the possibilities for the primary race against Mayor Thompson, and the first decision of the Deneen group will be whether one of them will come out openly as an avowed candidate.

Haas Claim Stronger.

Haas is said to have declared repeatedly that he will run and is said to have a greater political claim on the support of his fellow than Littinger at this time because Littinger narrowly escaped defeat in the November election. In fact, Ulysses S. Schwartz, the Democratic candidate for the review board, defeated him in the city, and he was saved only by the country town Republican strength.

JOSEPH F. HAAS

There also is this feature in connection with the possibility of Littinger's becoming a candidate. Schwartz already has taken the preliminary steps to contest his election and it is not improbable that the recount with its accompanying sessions will be occupying considerable space in the press and much of Littinger's time along about the time that a mayoralty candidate should be doing some of his best running.

But it is accepted everywhere—at least everywhere outside the group of their immediate friends—that neither Haas nor Littinger would command the united support of the anti-city hall Republicans. Recently Attorney General Brundage, in a north side speech, demanded that all thought of factional advantage be laid aside in the selection of an anti-Thompson candidate, and the Crowe-Barrett leaders also are insisting that a candidate be selected who is free from the taint of factionalism and is not a perennial or biennial or quadrennial office seeker.

People for Caucus.
Littinger's immediate friends do not consider him out of the race and Haas is said to be "looking the situation over." Their views probably will be aired in their group caucus next week and a decision reached at that time.

Among the Democrats, Clayton T. Smith, city treasurer, and James McAndrews, former congressman, are being boosted by the use of printed cards.

HEIRESS ELOPER, ALLEGED CON MAN HUSBAND, HELD

Charles M. Levy, alleged confidence man, and "Billie" Jean Shuch, pretty 17-year-old daughter of Jean Schuch, 3414 North Tripp avenue, wealthy manufacturer, who eloped Nov. 18 and were married Dec. 2, were arrested yesterday at a hotel in Pond du Lac, Wis.

According to police, the couple left unpaid bills at Kenosha, Wis., and Waukegan, Ill., hotels. They also say that Levy, working as a window trimmer, stole a silk umbrella and a quantity of valuable lace in Waukegan, and $45 which had been given him in purchase of lace in Kenosha. His youthful bride refuses to believe the charges and says she will stick to him.

AIRPLANE WITH OFFICERS ABOARD IS LONG OVERDUE

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 7.—Fears for the safety of Col. Francis C. Marshall, attached to the staff of the chief of cavalry at Washington, and Lieut. Charles L. Webber of the air service were expressed tonight at Rockwell field here.

The two officers left San Diego at 7:15 a. m. today for Fort Huachuca, near Tucson, with instructions to report by wire on arrival, which was expected within five hours, but had not reported up to late tonight.

HAYNES BUDGET FANS FLAMES OF WET-DRY FIGHT

Liquor Forces Seek to Cut Enforcement Funds.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—The first clash between the wet and dry forces in the November election took place in the house today, when the treasury appropriation bill, containing $9,000,000 for prohibition enforcement, came up.

Although the wets appeared to be headed for certain defeat in this particular fight, their efforts clearly foreshadowed a merry war over the liquor issue in congress during the next two years.

The issue presented today was that of upholding the recommendation of the appropriations committee reducing the annual allowance for prohibition enforcement from $9,250,000 to $9,000,000, or cutting it still further.

Mr. Hill stated the purpose of his amendments was to eliminate $150,000 a year for the maintenance of prohibition enforcement. Mr. Hill contended that the amendments were designed to bring about honest enforcement. The drys received Mr. Hill's proposals with such heat that they insisted upon rigid observance of the five minute rule and refused to permit him to complete his speech.

Mr. Hill stated the purpose of his amendments was to eliminate $150,000 a year for the maintenance of prohibition enforcement from the treasury department to the department of justice.

See Saloon Reinstatement.
Representative Andrews (Rep., Neb.) charged that Mr. Hill was trying to bring back the open saloon. Mr. Hill denied this and said he was merely seeking to bring about honest enforcement.

Important Witness!

IRENE CASTLE TREMAINE.

When Dorsey and Murphy, the former being M. M. Dorsey, chauffeur for Mrs. L. Montefiore Stein, 1304 Astor street, the latter Traffic Policeman Thomas Murphy—came to words yesterday which led to the Central Detail police station, it distressed Irene Castle Tremaine, dancer, very much.

"It's none of my argument," Mrs. Tremaine pouted prettily, but the crowd which had gathered around laughed and Policeman Murphy, whose heart, it appeared, must be adamant, took her along to the musty station as a witness.

Dorsey had driven Mrs. Tremaine, who is Mrs. Stein's guest, to the Sherman hotel. While Mrs. Tremaine went inside, Dorsey, with Mrs. Stein in the car, parked in Clark street. The policeman ordered Dorsey to move; and when a Murphy gets fresh with a Dorsey—

"First time I was ever in a police station in my life," said the dancer. "What a nasty hole it is!"

INSULL OPERA'S MUSSOLINI, SAYS MME. GALLI-CURCI

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES.

If you have to have a boss, pick a man. For all human beings fight with their bosses, and from a man "you can at least expect civility," declared Mme. Amelita Galli-Curci yesterday in her suite at the Congress hotel.

The opera star, who has come to Chicago to fill a series of ten engagements with the Chicago Civic Opera company, hastened to add that this was a reflection on life, and not a comment on the retirement of Mary Garden from the role of opera director.

As the diva was discussing the delight of working with men, professionally, the Talmadge sisters, Norma, Constance, and Natalie, were demonstrating that they could welcome into the ranks of movie stars a girl, and a beautiful girl, as they arrived in Chicago with Miss Margaret Leahy, the English girl "with the perfect film face."

Her Tribute to Insull.
Of Samuel Insull, Mme. Galli-Curci said, "He seems to be O. K. so wise a man. He's the Mussolini of the opera. He makes order out of chaos. Beautiful. An opera star should be just as reliable as the carpenter or the man who shoves the scenes around."

Devotedly proud of the accomplishments of the Fascist in her beloved Italy, the singer can pay no higher compliment to Mr. Insull, she declared, than to liken him to "that unselfish man, Mussolini, who is keeping Russian bolshevism out of Italy."

Accompanying the diva are her husband, Homer Samuels, and twelve trunks of new gowns made by Callot of Paris.

Or her husband she says, "A professional woman ought to marry. She ought also to marry an artist, but not in the same line, Mon Dieu, no, or they will start scrapping right away."

Only Two Real Companies.
The young American singer, she feels, has splendid opportunity to learn from American teachers, but very little chance to get into opera. "There are only two real companies, the Chicago and the Metropolitan," she says, "and maybe San Carlo. There ought to be more."

"It's hard enough to make a success, but it's much harder to keep at the top," said the singer, who has kept at the top. "Everybody comes to hear a new singer, but Father Time, with his long beard, he's the one to tell who will stay at the top."

Mme. Galli-Curci, who will appear first Dec. 15 in "my old war horse Lucia di Lammermoor," will give ten performances here and then, with impartiality, ten at the Metropolitan in New York.

While the coloratura was stating that a singer must look well, Margaret Leahy was wondering if she could act just because she was pretty.

En Route to Hollywood.
Miss Leahy, picked by Norma and Constance Talmadge as the winner of a London beauty contest, was accompanied by her two sponsors, their sister, Natalie, her husband, "Buster" Keaton, and their baby, "Buster Jr." They are en route to Hollywood. The English beauty will make her debut in the movies with Norma Talmadge when she plays "Agnes" in "Within the Law."

A shop girl since she was 14, the 20 year old English girl has no rules for beauty, unless it's "lots of hard work and no cosmetics."

FOULKE ATTACKS VOLSTEAD AND WAYNE WHEELER

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—The "spoils drive" in the federal civil service, especially in the appointment of presidential postmasters and in the enforcement of the prohibition law, was denounced today at the forty-second annual meeting of the National Civil Service Reform league.

At the same time tribute was paid to President Harding and Secretary of State Hughes for the well nigh complete elimination of party politics from diplomatic and consular appointments.

Particularly bitter was the attack launched by Mr. Foulke against the prohibition enforcement bureau, which he characterized as the "perfect fruitage of the spoils system."

Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, took issue with Mr. Foulke's comments upon his organization and a lively discussion ensued.

FINED $10 FOR LOOK UP FLEA.
Judge Richardson yesterday fined Harry Roberts, salesman, $1 and costs because Roberts indicted that a policeman "look him up."

NEW FACE PURGE HAS NO CURE

Effects Radiant Skin in 10 Minutes. "A Miracle," Say Beauty Scientists.

A dull skin made soft and lovely as a baby's, blackheads gone, freckles reduced—all in ten minutes. It sounds like a miracle, and beauty scientists call it that. It is a new skin cathartic called KANTOL. You apply it like a cold cream, let it remain 10 minutes, then wash it off—that is all. It purges face pores like a laxative does the bowels. With your own eyes, you can see it work. It does not dry on the face or draw the skin like clay and works in one-fifth the time. Thousands of beautiful skins you see are due to it. International beauty experts urge its use and employ it.

If you want to be pretty today, by all means obtain a jar of KANTOL at your druggist's or department store. You will scarcely believe what your mirror tells after you have used it.

MELLON PAINTED AS JEKYLL AND AS HYDE IN HOUSE

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—Two impressions of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon were given in speeches in the house today. Representative Frear (Rep., Wis.), renewed his attacks upon Mr. Mellon, describing his annual report as "a confession of the most shameful conditions ever disclosed in the treasury taxing machinery."
Representative Frear (Rep., Ohio), recently elected to the senate asserted that Secretary Mellon's administration of the treasury department has proved

"the most brilliant since the days of Alexander Hamilton."
Representative Frear demanded an investigation of charges made by him in a series of letters to the secretary. He repeated charges that upwards of $2,000,000,000 in corporation accumulated surpluses are escaping penalties and individual surtaxes, that an oil company controlled by Secretary Mellon started "the wild melon cutting race," that the tax administration of the internal revenue office is under the control of a small group of men whose activities have become a public scandal, that the Aluminum Company of America, the Standard Steel company and other corporations have been favored.
After reciting his charges Mr. Frear turned to the annual report of the secretary of the treasury made public yesterday.
"He devotes an entire page to describing tax dodging, tax evading, tax escaping methods employed by men of large wealth," said Mr. Frear. "It is the most serious indictment of great financiers ever given to the public."
"Is it not time the treasury records were made public when Secretary Mellon permits the man of wealth to escape because he knows how to dodge the law, but holds the small taxpayer down to the limit?"

Representative Frear reviewed the progress of governmental financing under Secretary Mellon.
"When the historian details the after-war problems and their solution, special commendation will be made of the brilliant financing of the government obligations," Mr. Frear said. "Measured by the size of the problem, its complications, its possible dire results, its difficulties to overcome, the success of the treasury department, while not spectacular, is the most brilliant since the days of Alexander Hamilton."
"Under Mr. Mellon's direction this nation has balanced its budget, reduced its public debt by over $1,331,102,975, financed its loans, thawed out its frozen credits, released its assets for industry, made banking easier, lowered rates of interest and redoubled, revived business, banished unemployment and brought the government credit back to par. This achievement will challenge the record for an equal performance in the history of finance."

HARDING TO WIN FIGHT ON SUBSIDY BILL AMENDMENT

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—(Special.)—Members of the senate commerce committee continued consideration of the administration ship subsidy bill today without coming to a final agreement. Senator Jones (Rep., Wash.), chairman, expressed the belief tonight the committee would report the bill favorably on Saturday.
The committee again deferred action on the proposal to eliminate the Madden amendment of the house bill requiring annual appropriations for the payment of subsidies. Prospects are that the Madden amendment will be eliminated as urged by President Harding and that the Leavitt amendment providing that the rate of compensation cannot be increased without congressional authorization adopted as a compromise.

Senator Calder (Rep., N. Y.) of the committee, a supporter of the bill, said he would favor the Leavitt amendment. He said he did not regard it as weakening the bill.
Experts of the shipping board and of the treasury met with the committee to discuss various technical features of the bill. The committee read the bill in the section which deals with direct compensation. All sections up to this point with the exception of the Madden amendment, were tentatively acted upon.
The committee approved title II, relating to tax exemption. This action meant that no attempt will be made to restore the provision stricken out in the house, giving an income tax credit to shippers equal to 5 per cent of the money paid for ocean transportation on American vessels. The other taxation features were approved. These provisions include tax exemptions to vessel owners on earnings from operations and profits in the sale of ships provided the earnings are invested in new construction and also a special depreciation allowance in computing taxes on ships built at war costs.

The committee approved title III, which requires that one-half of the immigrants coming to this country shall be transported in American vessels.
Title I, which relates to the sale of ships and includes provisions relative to the $125,000,000 construction loan fund, was disposed of the house amendments increasing rates of interest being accepted.
Members of the committee discussed the graduated scale of compensation at some length. Senator McNary (Rep., Ore.) questioned the desirability of paying the fastest vessels a much greater rate of compensation than the slower ships. Experts of the shipping board presented arguments to recommend a higher rate of compensation as a means of encouraging the construction and operation of vessels to carry the mails in peace time and are suitable as naval auxiliaries in time of war.

Mandel Brothers The Christmas Store Beautiful

In the moderately-priced-frock shop: A sale extraordinary of 700 dinner, dance, and evening frocks at about half the prices usually asked for frocks of this quality and style distinction

Fortunate purchases from three of New York's foremost wholesale dressmakers, noted from coast to coast for the distinction of their productions, negotiated at extraordinary concessions, account for these values among the most remarkable we have ever offered.

Frocks of silk velvets; georgette and paulette crepe; metallic cloths; sequin robes; imported hand beaded models included

Featuring adornment of colorful metallic and silk thread embroidery, beading, lace, French flowers, and other novel, artistic effects

$38

The effective embellishment is widely varied—simple in some cases, in others elaborate in the extreme.

Women's and misses' models—for formal and informal occasions

The later winter mode finds its most charming interpretation in these fresh, new, smart frocks direct from their makers. The models are cleverly developed in the rich silken fabrics most favored of fashion, in a fascinating choice. The variations of style and of artistic adornment are myriad. Eight frocks exemplary of the charm of all, are pictured above.

Exquisite coloring is an outstanding feature

Included are flame, pumpkin, American beauty, caramel, jade, French blue, turquoise, orchid, brown, cocoa and navy; also black and white. The occasion affords women and misses, and young women home from school and college, opportunity to save substantially—remarkably—on delightfully modish frocks for the festivities of the approaching holiday season. Those planning trips to winter resorts, too, may choose costumes for formal and informal wear. Many of the frocks also are appropriate for afternoon and street. Owing to the very special nature of this sale, none of the frocks can be sent on approval; all sales must be regarded as final.

SMALL ET AL. GRAB SENATE SEAT FOR MARKS

the matter. Their work is purely administrative.

"The Supreme court has so held in every case involving this point. The most recent one was in 1915, and the present board must have known that preceding boards have refused repeatedly to take any action of this nature."

Refuse to Sign Report.

The Small-Russell-Miller decision was combated strongly by William E. Trautmann, Attorney General Brundage's representative, and Secretary of State L. L. Emmerson. They maintained to the finish that the functions of the canvassing board are purely ministerial and not judicial and when the vote was taken announced they would not sign the canvass report on the First senatorial district.

The precinct rejected was the Seventh of the First ward. An employee of Arthur Burrage Farwell, a reformer, testified before the Chicago board that the judges and clerks went into the polling booths with voters and marked their ballots. He also said he had seen some 50 cent pieces pass. A transcript of this testimony was presented to the board at Springfield by Edward H. Wright, colored assistant corporation counsel, who some time ago was disclosed as having received $20,000 as "special counsel" for the city, and Frank D. Ayers, another city hall lawyer. On this showing, thrown out by Judge Righelimer, Gov. Small and his associates changed Macpherson's plurality of 43 votes to a plurality of 143 for Marks.

Boons Law in Peril.

Under the earlier decision of the majority of the board that it would go behind the returns, Michael F. Henneberry, Democrat, of the Will-Dupage district, sought to get the house certificate from William R. McCabe, Republican.

Things were so messed up by that moment that it became apparent that the canvassing board might be clouding the technical and legal approval of the soldiers' bonus act and the $55,000 bond issue. The Henneberry case was peremptorily closed and by a 3 to 0 vote the certificates in the Forty-first district go to the three Republicans, Lottie Holman O'Neill, the first woman member of the Illinois legislature; John L. Walker, and Mr. McCabe.

Mrs. O'Neill made her Springfield debut today and was very much on hand to protect her own rights. Failure of Michael L. Igoe to appear in behalf of Charles F. Hayes, Democrat, in the Lake-Boone-McHenry district led the board to declare elected the three present Republicans, Wells, Pierce, and Francis. The threat had been made that the Zion City vote was to be attacked.

Stuyvesant Fish Sees Wet Victory in 2 Years

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 7.—[Special.]—Stuyvesant Fish of New York has accepted the trusteeship of the National Association Opposed to the Prohibition Amendment. The announcement of his acceptance was made last night at a dinner given by prominent wets, including Senator Elect William Cabell Bruce of Maryland. Mr. Fish told Capt. William S. Statton, head of the organization, that since the November elections he had been convinced that victory could be achieved in two years.

Alleged Lanus Slayers Go to Trial on Jan. 22

Trial of the bandit gang accused of the murder of Joseph Lanus, automobile dealer, was set for Jan. 22 by Chief Justice Michael L. McKinley yesterday on the plea of First Assistant State's Attorney Edgar Jonas for an early trial date.

LAKES TO OCEAN WATERWAY PLAN WINS A VICTORY

Power Company Can't Hold Up Project.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—[Special.]—The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association, which is aggressively pursuing its campaign for construction of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence seaway project, won its fight today before the international joint commission to prevent a temporary permit issued to the St. Lawrence Power company from interfering in future with the proposed waterway.

The commission at the conclusion of hearings on the subject extended for two years the permit issued in 1918 to the St. Lawrence company to maintain a submerged weir in the south channel of the St. Lawrence river near its Massena plant, but reserved the right to cancel the permit.

At the hearing, in addition to representatives of both governments, H. G. Gardner, president of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association, and Senator Frank B. Kellogg (Rep.-Minn.) appeared on behalf of the canal project in opposition to any permanent extension of the weir permit.

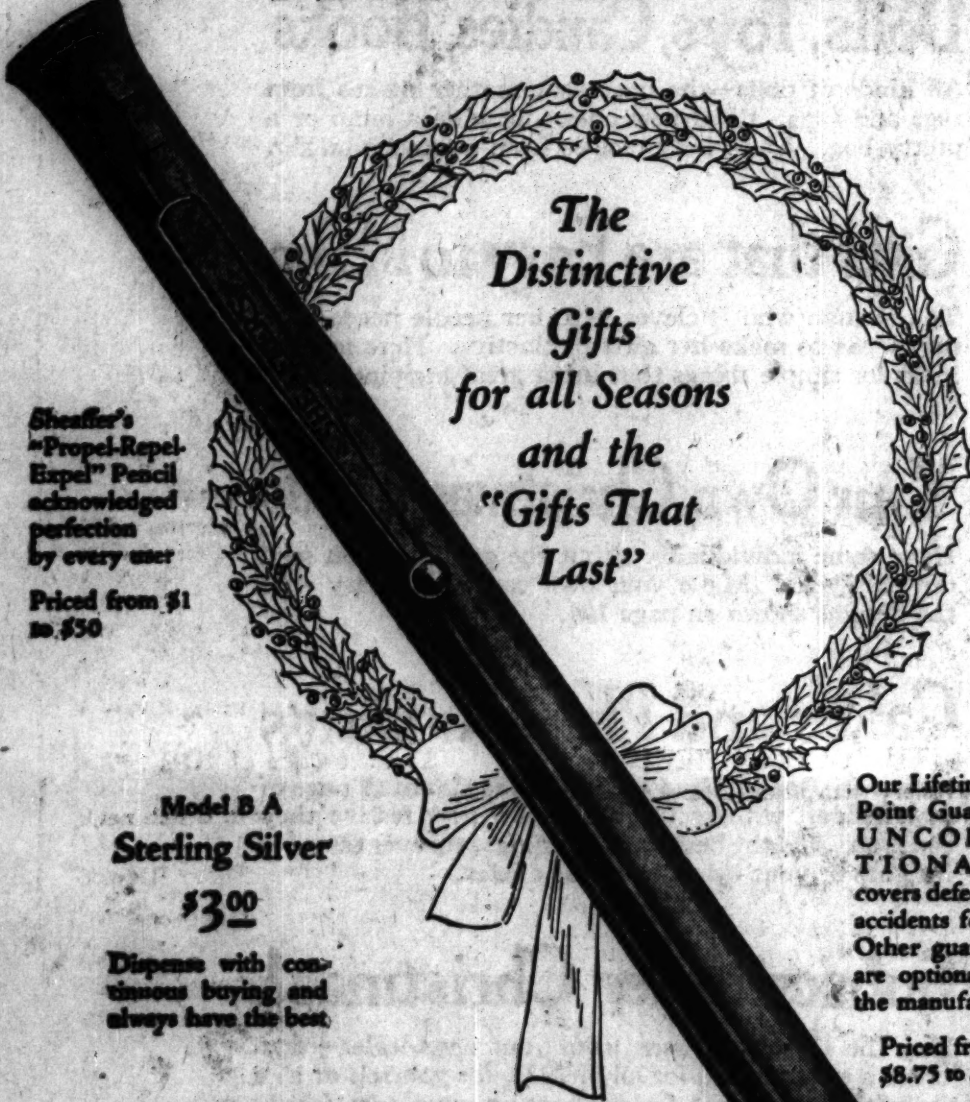

"This modification," said President Gardner today, "is satisfactory to the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater association. We who are so earnestly advocating early action to carry out this great project continue to be encouraged over the prospect."

"The Canadian government, we are convinced, will in due time be ready to accept the invitation of the United States to negotiate a treaty to provide for joint construction of this seaway. Sentiment in favor of the canal has been growing by leaps and bounds among the farmers of western Canada."

Concerning a Neighbor of Yours

One reason why Chicago leads in railroad freightage

IT TAKES about 3500 freight cars to carry 6000 miles of telephone cable, a year's production at the Western Electric Hawthorne works.

Yet cable is but one of many items sent from this Chicago plant. Chief among these, though not the most bulky, is over a million telephones a year.

Switchboards, telegraph and radio apparatus, and the hundreds of items of telephone equipment—all these go out over the rails.

All in all, Western Electric is no small factor in the car loadings of Chicago. The reason is not far to seek. Western Electric equipment has become accepted as the standard of the world.

SANITARY BOARD DEMOCRATS VOTE AGAINST HEALY

The three recently elected Democratic sanitary trustees surprised all by voting yesterday against the plan for preparing the sanitary board under which the city would be divided into four districts.

James M. McLaughlin, who was elected president of the board, voted "no" on every one of the resolutions, including one for the efficiency and economy program proposed by William J. Healy, a motion picture producer who had been elected president.

On all votes except this, Trustee Harry J. Little, who is fighting his reelection because he was defeated in the election of the employment committee, also voted "no," but he balked at voting against Healy's proposal for a complete survey of the personnel of the board's service with a view of removing unnecessary employees and replacing inefficient workers with competent ones.

The rest of the board voted solidly for the Healy-Nance program, including the election of Healy as president and Nance as chairman of the employment committee. Nance, as chairman of the board, and the other chairmen of the various committees, are to be elected by the board on Wednesday.

It had been expected the Democrats would vote for Healy for president. He had extended the olive branch to them and they had been assured a substantial share in the board patronage. But, although there was no other candidate, when they turned, they voted against him.

The Republicans charged that the Democrats, dissatisfied with the share of patronage offered them, and believing the Republicans could not organize the board alone, were trying a "bait and switch" plan. They had been assured a share of the board's patronage, but when they turned, they voted against him.

YEAR TO LIFE FOR YOUTH WHO SHOT CAR CONDUCTOR

Morris Fuller, colored, 20 years old, 3404 South Wabash avenue, who on June 28 shot and killed Jesse H. Goman, 1473 West 71st place, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury before Judge Oscar Hebel in Criminal court last night. The verdict carried an indeterminate sentence of from one year to life in the penitentiary.

Fuller, according to the evidence, boarded a south bound State street car at 25th street, and when Goman, the conductor, asked for his fare a quarrel arose, in which the colored man shot Goman and fled. A crowd made up largely of colored persons, captured Fuller.

Assistant State's Attorney William McLaughlin asked for the death penalty and attempted to introduce a confession made by the defendant when in custody of the Cottage Grove avenue police. Judge Hebel ruled against the confession.

FREIGHT MOVING FREELY ON ALL LINES OF ROAD

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—An increased scope of activities, due partially to enlarged responsibility put upon it by legislation of recent years, and partially to use of emergency powers required by industrial disturbances in recent months, was described today in the annual report of the Interstate Commerce commission.

Together with its usual work in regulation of railroad rates and service, the commission reviewed operations by which it assumed some degree of actual control of railroads during the summer period of emergency occasioned by the double strike in the coal mines and in the railroad shops; presented summaries of the operations and the outlook for final conclusion of the protracted settlements of financial accounts between the government and the railroad arising out of the federal control during the war.

Commerce Is Flowing Freely.

Its major action in the rate fixing field, the report said, was the 10 percent reduction in freight charges ordered last July.

"Manifestly, the existing rates are no longer interfering with the free flow of commerce as a whole," the report said. "The tonnage moving has been steadily increasing in recent months. Little opportunity has been afforded for determination of the effect of the reduced rate level upon the net earnings of carriers because of freight congestion and other abnormal conditions which have resulted from the coal strike, the shipmen's strike, and other causes."

The report reviewed how the commission, to meet the "menacing domestic and industrial consequences of the strikes," had put priority orders into effect, and cooperated with the emergency organization of the federal fuel distribution office.

Regulation of Rates.

In its more traditional field, the regulation of rates and service, the commission was enabled during the year to reach a basis of cooperative understanding with state commissions and regulatory bodies, the report said, and for the plan devised, hope of ultimate success was expressed.

Congress was requested to enact legislation to make it criminal to bribe railroad employees to give preference in our supply; to increase use of all steel passenger cars by railroads; and to clarify sections of the existing transportation act in relation to proposed consolidation of railroads.

ADVERTISING VALUE OF RAILROADS.

The value of advertising will be the subject of an advertising campaign by the National American Traffic association during the next year, its president, A. B. McGraw, announced yesterday.

"MAKEUP," TIPS OFF NEWS WORTH, HARRISON SAYS

Tells Medill Students of "Small Town."

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES.

"If I thought people, day in and day out, would approve of my paper, I'd stop publishing it," declared John H. Harrison, editor of the Danville, Ill., Commercial-News, speaking last night on "An Editor's Obligation" before the Medill School of Journalism.

In spite of his calumny toward criticism, Mr. Harrison holds that an editor, though he own his typesetting machines, his buildings, his dividends, and his circulation, "has one big, tremendous obligation. I mean that quality which we call good will, influence, or power of the press."

Insisting that the primary object of a newspaper is to give the news, the Danville editor reminded his audience that the interpretation of the news played an important part in the formation of public opinion. "And interpretation of the news means not only editorial; it means the way a story is played up."

Makeup Is Important.

"If an editor places a story in an obscure place in the back of the paper his readers are inclined to give it the same relative value. If he plays it up big, on the front page, with a streamer head line, the public judge it accordingly."

The only honest way for an editor to interpret the news, argued the speaker, is "for him to live himself into his community. This theory precludes the idea of a chain of papers, either locally or nationally."

A conscientious editor, Mr. Harrison pointed out, would find it difficult to support a native son for governor in one town in which he owned a paper, and then, in another paper, in another town, to support its native son for the same position.

For Party Paper.

Of the relation of journalism to politics, the speaker, a strong party man, declared the "so-called independent paper," claiming that he knew of only one which was entirely independent.

"That paper," he stated, "was owned by two co-equal partners, a Republican and a Democrat, who were on an absolute fifty-fifty basis and absolutely checked each other." Other independent papers, he feels, are "a bit of a farce."

Urging the journalism students to "barnstorm in a small town before hitting a metropolitan paper," Mr. Harrison advised them to "pick an American town, where nearly everybody reads English; don't get too near the shadow of a big city, and serve an all around apprenticeship, from writing editorials to wrapping up papers."

"Then, if you wish, return to the city to specialize. Then you will know what your bent is. If you go first to a big city the city editor will be pleased with one of your stories and keep you doing that particular type of story until you can't do anything else. Try the country, or the small town, first."

The Challenge of the Bootleggers

A saturnalia of bootlegging seems to be no exaggerated phrase to describe the startling state of affairs to which the Administration calls the nation's attention. Inspired Washington dispatches tell us that the present Prohibition enforcement methods are "debauching and debasing the entire country"; that the President is "deeply concerned over a belief that the moral fiber of the American people is deteriorating through the open disrespect shown for the effort to enforce Prohibition"; and that "the growth of bootlegging, the temerity of rum-runners, and the serious insinuations against Federal enforcement officers have been worrying the Administration for some months," until finally—"with Prohibition enforcement recognized as on the verge of absolute collapse in four States and in a condition of serious demoralization elsewhere in the country, President Harding considered to-day the issuance of a solemn public appeal to all good citizens to discourage bootlegging as a last resort to administer the law."

"One way to make Prohibition prohibit," declares the New York Evening Post, "would be to arrest some of the prominent and respectable people who buy what the bootleggers sell."

The leading article in The Literary Digest this week takes up the subject of the enforcement of the Prohibition laws and presents the opinions of leading newspapers as to ways and means.

The Season's Screen Novelty

Over one thousand leading theaters are now showing the humorous motion picture, "Fun From the Press." New bookings are being signed as fast as salesmen can cover their territory. And this real laughmaker is just three months old. But no wonder!

"Produced by The Literary Digest" has been an assurance to millions of photoplay fans of a superior product. For more than thirty years The Digest has been an accurate barometer of the public pulse.

So, "Fun From the Press" is the happiest, jolliest collection of rapid-fire mirth presented on any screen. There's a laugh in every flicker of the film. It's the cream of clean humor. If you've missed the first releases, surely see the next. Watch for it every week at your favorite motion-picture haunt. "Fun From the Press" is Produced by The Literary Digest; W. W. Hodgkinson Corporation, Distributors.

$100,000 WORTH OF SUPER-HORSES PARADE AT SHOW

Visitors Capture Many Coveted Prizes.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Visitors of Percherons, Belgians, Clydesdales and Shires, captured a living picture of a horse show at the International Horse show last night. More than $100,000 worth of horses paraded at the end of the winter rains as their proud attendants and huge crowds of spectators, who had come to the strains of bagpipes.

The display of super-horseflesh, surmounting in beauty and power any similar exhibition in the world, brought thousands of spectators from all parts of the city and abroad. During the parade, the parade was a scene of the parade as the parade was a scene of the parade.

More than 200 equine giants were in the parade. All had been shown before judges during the week, in competition for class awards and championships. Canada, the far west, the east and the south were represented.

Despite the London fog which hung over the city last night, more than 20,000 persons turned out to pay tribute to the horses. Their enthusiasm was rewarded, both in the drafter parade and the light horse division of the program, not the least of which was the artistic performance of "Belle's" famous veteran high school team, owned and ridden by Tom Baas of Weston, Mo. This animal actress has the ease and grace of a Pavoise as she dances across the tankard, lifting her feet daintily and airily.

Coming from the east and the west, the parade was a scene of the parade as the parade was a scene of the parade.

LEGION NOTES

sold by J. C. Andrew, West Point, Ind. Mr. Andrew is a director of the International.

All eyes and ears turned toward the sales arena yesterday when Cheno-weth Jock, grand champion pure bred Shorthorn of the 1922 International, was led in to be sold under the hammer. Jock was sold to Armour & Co. at $125 a pound, 15 cents a pound higher than Lula Mayflower, last year's grand champion. The chamlion will be dressed by the packers, and the carcass has been sold to the Congress hotel, where the prime steaks and roasts will be served.

The grand champion carlot of cattle sold at 30 cents a pound to Swift & Co. John Hubby of Mason City, Ill., is the owner of the fancy prize winning Angus cattle. Mr. Hubby has won this premier honor three times. He also carried away many other honors yesterday.

Championship to Illinois.

Among outstanding features in the judging oval yesterday was the awarding of the grand championship breeding Shires' title to Locking Seller Emanuel, owned by Truman Pioneer Stud farm, Bushnell, Ill. The Truman farm also won the junior champion stallion honor with the same horse.

The breeding Clydesdale stallion grand champion and senior went to First Principal, owned by the Manitoba department of agriculture and immigration.

Lady Woodford, owned by Senator J. N. Camden, Versailles, Ky., was awarded grand championship for females as well as the senior title, while Belle Blanchard, entered by Jesse Stogie, Sheridan, Mo., is the junior champion hereof female.

The grand champion Filled Shorthorn bull is Ceremonious Sultan of the Leamon Stock Farm, Hopestown, Ill., also the senior title holder. Reserve and junior championship went to Royal Marshall, owned by J. F. McLaughlin, Mitchell, S. D.

Heatherbloom, owned by Truman's Pioneer Stud farm of Bushnell, Ill., was named grand champion of the show and senior champion in the breeding Shires mare division. The junior champion mare among the Shire breeding class is Rose Mayflower.

The grand champion mare of the breeding Clydesdales is Craigie Sylvia, owned by George A. Cueti, Williams-down, Mass. The senior champion Clydesdale mare also is Craigie Sylvia. The junior champion mare, under 2 years, is Hayfield Dahlia, owned by the Hayfield Farm Stud, Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Dentists say
USE BOTH!

"Complete dental treatment"
—new, scientific,
thorough-cleansing

DENTISTS everywhere are recommending a new and more thorough method of caring for the teeth.

Why? Because they know that people today are paying toll with the health and beauty of their teeth to two deadly enemies. And protection from one alone is not enough.

One destructive force is dental mucin, often called film. It attacks the surface of the teeth, making them yellow and ugly. The second is the acid decay that comes from the fermentation of tiny food particles in the crevices between teeth.

The Sanitol method now offers protection from both these dread forces.

Clears away film

Sanitol Tooth Paste keeps the teeth smooth and beautifully white. First, the glycerine in Sanitol softens, then the fine chalk entirely clears away the ugly dental mucin. By removing this filmy coating it restores the whiteness to teeth that have already begun to yellow. It contains nothing that will injure the teeth.

Counteracts fermentation
Sanitol Liquid Antiseptic floods into all nooks and crevices cleansing them antiseptically—checking the decay from acids of fermentation. Besides it makes gums firmer and healthier, sweetens the breath and is an excellent gargle for the throat.

You'll actually enjoy using both. You will soon see your teeth grow whiter.

Try two samples at our expense. Fill out the coupon!

For the First Trip to the Tree Puss-in-Boots Slippers For Children, $2 to $2.25

Cozy little slippers, soft and snugly warm. The very attractive styles and lovely colors make them the most welcome of Christmas gifts. There are

Quilted Satin Comfy Moccasins

With fluffy silk pompons in red, old rose, and blue. Sizes 8½ to 11, priced, $2 pair. Sizes 11 to 2, interestingly priced, $2.25 pair.

Comfy moccasins with turnover tops. With silk pompons. In old rose, blue, and brown. Priced $2.50 pair.

Third Floor, South.

Exquisite Silken Undergarments Among the Most Desired Gifts

A most important part of this section's Christmas planning, so that this low pricing means not the least sacrifice of quality or charm.

Step-In Chemises, And Bloomers of Satin

$3.95 Each

Of tub satin. Hemstitching, embroidery or real lace are cleverly used. Bloomers are well cut and fitted. Many styles. One of each is sketched here.

Silken Night-Dresses, $4.95

Of fine crepe de Chine. In the much-wanted pastel shades. Sketched at left. $4.95. Satin underbodices, on figure at right, $1.95.

Trim-looking Blanket Robes, $8.95 With Wide Satin Bands Smartly Applied

A soft fine quality, well cut, carefully fitted, with a heavy silk tasseled girdle, little touches which make them not merely practical but really lovely gifts.

In rose, crimson, orchid, raspberry and soft shades of blue, so that there is opportunity for varied choice. At left.

Silk Jersey Petticoats Satin Pettibockers

At $8.75

Petticoats of heavy silk jersey. In striking new color effects with a vivid touch of braid. Sketched at right. $8.75.

The pettibockers have a pointed flounce of silk jersey in delightful colors. In every wanted shade. $8.75.

Third Floor, North.

Welcome Gifts, Women's French Kid Gloves

Exquisite gloves—just come from France. Colors are those most wanted—details new and very smart—prices low.

DAILY HOROSCOPE

Doris Blake Says:

TODAY IS LUCKY FOR THE CAUTIOUS.

The male planets, Mars and Jupiter, being in parallel with Saturn, it is a day upon which to be cautious about what one puts into letters, lest there arise misunderstandings and complications of adverse nature. Those whose birth date it is have the augury of a most successful year ahead, but are warned against bodily injury due to careless conduct. You are not fitted for leadership because you lack the broadmindedness and comprehensiveness necessary. Your intense zeal makes you capable of seeing one side of the question only. You will not compromise. You make too many enemies to be successful in politics or in positions of command in societies and clubs or large business organizations. You are better fitted to execute the ideas of others than your own. A child born on this day will be domineering and not overpopular unless the above traits are ironed out in youth.

Unwisdom of Consideration.

"Dear Miss Blake: The other evening a man for whom I had a great respect called. He told a little story, which I didn't get the meaning of, but didn't want to ask him about. After asking a few girls what it meant I learned it wasn't just what a respectable girl would let any fellow say to her. I haven't seen him since. I blame it to my letting him say it. I used to have all the respect in the world for this young man, but now I hardly think I could hold him the time of the day in a girl's home. The thing I would like to know is this: would it be advisable to let him know just how I feel about it or just let it pass on? I know this much, that I will never go out with him again. If some fellow knew when they got a good girl it would be a good thing. He made it his business to get an introduction to me through a mutual friend. He has told this person he liked me exceptionally well. He is 25 and I am 20. "ALICE."

Undoubtedly the chap realizes he made no hit with you with his story and is ashamed. Anyway, he is not worth any further consideration. As you suggest, just let him and the occasion pass on.

What Pockets Will Do.

NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—In deciding whether your suit is to have plain pockets or patch pockets, you have probably never taken into consideration more than general taste and popularity of styles. But pockets, if treated theoretically, are seen to govern a man's figure as definitely as the cut of the trousers or the presence of a belt.

This, however, is not meant to be an argument pro or con patch pockets. If a man wants a strictly conservative suit, for instance, patch pockets are automatically plain flap. But when suits run into sport models, or young men's suits, as they are called sometimes, patch pockets are optional. For those who are seeking means to look more slender than they are the above illustration is a little hint, assuming that patch pockets appeal to them in the first place. If you take a rectangle with nothing in it and compare it with the same size rectangle broken up with smaller rectangles you will see that the former appears to be slightly larger.

Apply this to a sack coat with and without patch pockets and the same effect is acquired. One can enlarge upon this theory and see that if patch pockets are placed only below the waist line the chest would tend to be broader than it broadest patch pockets also were made use of. Four patch pockets, two above and two below, would make for a still smaller effect.

The reason for this trick of the eye is clear enough. In the case of the plain front the eye wanders over the surface with no interruptions, while the patch pockets catch the eye and the mass is broken up.

MOTHER: WRINKLES ARE DUE to a natural loss of subcutaneous fat, and in later life the skin tends naturally to become somewhat relaxed so that it does not maintain the tension of youth. If it is illness or loss of flesh that causes them, the system must be rebuilt, first of all. Local help may be obtained by massaging the face with some good skin food, and allowing a certain amount of it to be absorbed. Send a. a. a., and I will mail you a formula for skin food and instructions on facial massage.

Popcorn Balls.

Some people in making molasses candy use a little of the hot cooked stuff to bind popcorn for balls. A little of it poured in a thin stream over popped corn goes a long way. The following small portion if cooked to just the right stage is enough for about four quarts of popcorn: One-half cup of molasses, one-fourth cup sugar, one teaspoon vinegar, one teaspoon of butter; cook together until the sirup spins a thread, stirring until the sugar is well dissolved. A little water may be added, if necessary, and some people prefer to stir in the butter at the last minute before taking whole from stove. Pour in a thin stream over

A FRIEND IN NEED

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

Waiting for Santa.

"You have done so much for others I am going to appeal to your column for a poor family of my acquaintance. Christmas will soon be here and these five children are anxiously waiting for Santa Claus."

"The 2 year old boy wants a rocking horse, the 4 year old boy wants a tricycle, the 7 year old a tool chest, and the 9 year boy a building set. I wonder if there are some boys tired of their old toys who would be glad to share with these little unfortunates."

"They are all badly in need of clothing and shoes, and the poor, hard working mother needs a cash for the baby. Thank you."

Certainly this ought to result in some generous contributions to Mrs. H. and her little family.

Alone at 70.

"I am 70 years of age. I live with a good woman who gives me my bread and a roof for what little I can do about her house. I am badly in need of clothing—a coat, dress, petticoat, anything to keep me warm this winter. I would appreciate discarded clothing, size 38. If larger, I can remake. I will be grateful if I have a response to this plea."

To be in want when one is young is hard enough, but to be 70 and have misfortune is too much. May I ask that some one give something from her wardrobe to Mrs. S. D.

ARGENTINE RAIN DAMAGES WHEAT; PRICES ADVANCE

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

Torrential rains were reported to have fallen in parts of Argentina, delaying harvest and damaging the quality of the new wheat crop, but the market, while showing a firm undertone, ran into free selling around $1.17 for May and at the last was only 1/4¢ higher over the finish of the previous day. Corn was up 1/4¢ to $1.01 1/2 for December leading, while oats were 1/4¢ higher and rye unchanged to 1/4¢ higher.

Liverpool wheat prices were 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ lower at the opening on prospects of large Argentine clearances for the week and a slow milling demand, but closed strong with December 1/4¢ lower and the deferred futures up 1/4¢ to 1/2¢.

Exporters Take Hard Wheat. At $1.17 for May there was free selling by local houses and buyers were quickly filled up. Sentiment was somewhat mixed with a disposition shown to keep away from the bull side on bulge regardless of the news. Export business was fair and included 200,000 bu hard winter from the Gulf at 10¢ over December and St. Louis sold 65,000 bu to Gulf exporters. Cash premiums here were 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ higher on hard winter.

December corn sold a little tight and while selling even that delivery. Early throughout the day was largely of a local character with the strength in wheat the main influence. Argentine exports for the week are estimated at 4,400,000 bu, against 5,400,000 bu last year. Italian corn is estimated at 700,000 bu, or 20,000 bu less than last year.

Cash held within relatively narrow limits and in the main reflected the action of other grains. Domestic shipping demand remains fair.

Rye Has Steady Trade. Rye showed a heavy undertone and while there was fair buying credited to eastern account it was not aggressive. Export demand continues with sales at the seaboard estimated at 100,000 bu, or 20,000 bu less than last year.

Cash held within relatively narrow limits and in the main reflected the action of other grains. Domestic shipping demand remains fair.

Liverpool was a good seller of hard early, but later the market firmed up in sympathy with grains and hogs and closed with hard and rye 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ higher. Liverpool hard was 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ lower. Prices follow:

CASH-GRAIN NEWS

Business in cash wheat with exporters and for export in all positions yesterday aggregated 700,000 to 750,000 bu, including 250,000 bu hard winter at the Gulf, a cargo of durum for winter storage, and some March tobs. There was some inquiry for corn at the Gulf, but no sales were reported.

Chicago handlers sold 60,000 bu wheat, 125,000 bu corn, and 100,000 bu oats to the domestic trade, with 50,000 bu corn sold to go to stock.

Deliveries on December contracts here were 3,000 bu wheat, 248,000 bu corn, 5,000 bu oats, and 25,000 bu rye, while at Kansas City corn deliveries were 35,000 bu.

Premiums on hard winter at Chicago advanced 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ to $1.18 1/2 over December. No. 3 red was unchanged at 120 1/2¢ over, Receipts, 24 cars. St. Louis advanced 1¢ and Omaha 1/2¢, while Kansas City was unchanged to 1/2¢ higher.

Demand for cash corn remains fairly good with the basis firm as compared with the December. No. 3 mixed sold at 104 1/2¢ and yellow and white at 104 1/2¢ over the future, with dry cars at a slight premium. No. 3 grades were 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ higher, No. 4 graded 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ under December. Receipts, 248 cars. Chicago market 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ higher.

Little change was shown in the cash oat market, with No. 2 white 1/4¢ to 1/2¢ over December and No. 3 white December to 1/4¢ over. Receipts, 158 cars.

WORLD'S GRAIN MARKET-NEWS

Higher cables and unfavorable weather reports are expected from Argentina today and traders here look for better wheat prices for a time. Whether they will hold 3¢ is said to depend upon the amount of buying developed. The short interest, was reduced on the basis and there was a slight rise in the market from local holders at the top, most of which was taken back on reassurance at the close.

The northwest was a good buyer of wheat futures and reported a fair milling demand. The one situation in that section is better, but all the railroads there are short of motive power and cold weather may curtail arrivals for a few days.

Foreign interest and others who are at work on a constructive plan to facilitate exports of grain through establishing of an extensive system of long time credits abroad say it is progressing favorably and that the plan will be ready for introduction through a bill in congress in the near future. Foreign exchange has been the stumbling block, but this is being removed. Those who have not understood the methods of handling the exchange by grain exporters have had it explained satisfactorily, which has aided in clarifying the situation.
